

Chatswood – a thriving mini-city in itself

Chatswood is a vibrant and central place to live, as a student it offers a great community and lifestyle. Just 10km north of the Sydney CBD, it's a central transport hub which has regular trains running directly to Macquarie University train station, which only take 10 minutes, making it a convenient option for Macquarie University students.

They also run to North Sydney and the CBD every few minutes, taking 15 minutes and 20 minutes respectively and Chatswood's major bus interchange provides access to Manly, Mosman, Balmoral Beach and many other areas of Sydney.

If you like to shop, then Chatswood is the place for you. It's shopping is world class. With two of Sydney's largest shopping malls and lots of entertainment outlets. Westfield Chatswood (4 minute walk) offers a large array of eateries, clothing stores and a Hoyts cinema. Chatswood Chase (8 minute walk) is an upmarket centre with eateries and high end fashion stores. The Mandarin Centre (2 minute walk) has a ten pin bowling bar, cinema and a great range of cheap eateries.

You can also find eating options to suit any student budget. The District, a world class Asian-inspired dining precinct which boasts Tim Ho Wan – the world's cheapest Michelin-starred restaurant. There is also the Mall Market on Thursday and Friday, great noodle and dumpling houses and popular Yum Cha eateries. If you prefer to cook yourself, three major supermarkets (Woolworths, Coles and Aldi) and a great Asian supermarket are all within walking distance.
